

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This action is initiated pursuant to a federal law. The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania has original subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to U.S.C. § 1331 because the claims arise under the laws of the United States. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims because they arise out of the same circumstances and are based upon a common nucleus of operative facts.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants' contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendants to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district.

PARTIES

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult sui juris individual with a residential address as set forth above.

7. The University of Pennsylvania Health System ("Defendant UPHS") is a major multi-hospital health system headquartered in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. One of the hospitals it oversees, manages, and operates as part of its enterprise and system is Chester County Hospital ("Defendant CCH").

8. Defendant UPHS is the employer of Plaintiff, administers her employment benefits, pays her through its payroll, requires her to follow its practices and policies, and is her employer pursuant to its own personnel documentation. Defendant CCH is also a direct employer of Plaintiff where she physically works, follows directives of Defendant CCH management (who in turn report to Defendant UPHS management), and Defendant CCH oversees all aspects of nursing staff within its facilities (and overall hospital)

9. Defendants are properly considered a single, joint and/or integrated employer as they:

- (a) Both oversee compensation, benefits, and human resources matters for nursing employees such as Plaintiff;
- (b) Both direct, give policies to, and coordinate the work of nurses such as Plaintiff;
- (c) Both have the ability to compensation, transfer, demote, pay, hire and terminate nursing employees such as Plaintiff;
- (d) Both appear on business and personnel documentation of nursing employees such as Plaintiff;
- (e) Both advertise as the same enterprise and operation in advertising and the internet;
- (f) Both share resources, management, oversight of operations, and responsibilities of employees (such as Plaintiff) and patients; and
- (g) Both were directly aware of hospital-wide unlawful denial of compensation and overtime owed to Plaintiff and similarly situated employees but knowingly failed to correct such illegal conduct, despite joint ability to prevent and/or remedy same.

10. At all times relevant herein, Defendants acted by and through their agents, servants, and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendant.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

12. Plaintiff served as an hourly-paid nurse for Defendants for approximately 10 years, from in or about June 2010 through on or about August 6, 2020.

13. At the time of her separation from employment, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a Registered Nurse (“RN”).

14. Plaintiff was a hard-working employee who performed well, received little to no disciplinary action, and consistently received positive performance evaluations throughout the vast majority of her time with Defendants.

15. Unfortunately, during Plaintiff’s employment with Defendants, Plaintiff, along with the rest of the nursing staff working out of the same physical location as Plaintiff (all of whom were non-exempt employees), experienced many types of wage and overtime violations on a weekly basis. Plaintiff’s specific allegations regarding these wage violations are well outlined within Plaintiff’s August 22, 2019 complaint, filed with the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, attached hereto.<sup>1</sup> See Plaintiff’s Complaint, attached hereto as “Exhibit A.”

16. Plaintiff complained numerous times over a period of months to Defendants’ administration, including but not limited to Defendants’ management and payroll staff, regarding the concerns she maintained pertaining to Defendants’ wage violations, including not being paid minimum wages and overtime properly.

<sup>1</sup> As these underlying wage claims have already separately been filed with this Court and Plaintiff does not seek to bring those same claims again herein, Plaintiff refrains from detailing her more specific allegations in the body of the instant complaint

17. Despite Plaintiff's complaints, however, Defendants failed to properly investigate or otherwise remedy Plaintiff's complaints, as Plaintiff was (1) at times ignored; (2) at times told that is just the way it is; or (3) and on another occasion told even though Plaintiff's concerns were legitimate, the hospital "is too poor right now" to change its practices.

18. Instead, following Plaintiff's complaints to Defendants' management regarding the aforementioned pay related issues, Plaintiff was subjected to significant hostility and animosity from Defendants' management and staff in a manner disparately from other employees who had not complained about wage violations, including but not limited to being treated in a rude and condescending manner, excessively nitpicked, scrutinized, denied scheduling requests and/or opportunities, admonished, and disciplined.

19. After Defendants failed to cure the various issues pertaining to Plaintiff's pay, and instead began to subject Plaintiff to the aforementioned hostility, on or about August 22, 2019, Plaintiff filed a class/collective action lawsuit against Defendants in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, asserting claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act, and the Pennsylvania Wage Payment & Collection Law. Exhibit A.

20. On or about October 21, 2019, Defendants filed an answer to Plaintiff's complaint.

21. Following the filing of Plaintiff's lawsuit, the aforementioned hostility and animosity towards Plaintiff by Defendants only intensified and continued throughout the remainder of her employment until her termination.

22. Although Plaintiff complained on numerous occasions that she was being retaliated against and treated disparately because of her numerous complaints of wage violations, including in the days leading up to her termination from employment, her complaints were ignored without adequate investigation or resolution by Defendants.

23. On or about August 3, 2020, Plaintiff served Defendants with a production of documents supporting her claims in the aforesaid lawsuit.

24. Shortly thereafter, on or about August 6, 2020, Plaintiff was abruptly terminated from her employment with Defendant.

25. The reason provided to Plaintiff for her termination was that she had blind copied other employees from her department on an email to management discussing issues within her department.

26. Not only is this an absurd justification for the termination of a long-term employee such as Plaintiff, but this reason for termination is also pretextual for reasons including, but not limited to, the fact that Defendants had not terminated or disciplined other employees for similar actions in the past.

27. Moreover, tellingly, the day after Defendants abruptly terminated Plaintiff for entirely pretextual reasons, Defendants sent Plaintiff, through her attorney, a letter admitting that Defendants had committed wage violations as addressed by Plaintiff in her complaint and paying Plaintiff for wages which she “was not paid for” previously. See August 7, 2020 Letter, attached hereto as “Exhibit B.”

28. In the letter, Defendants further appear to assert that they also decided to pay other employees for wages owed to them as a result of the issues specified in Plaintiff’s complaint, asserting that Defendants are “committed to ensuring that all of its current and former employees are paid all wages to which they are entitled,” further attaching two payments to Hamid specifically, totaling $15,029.30, including “a payment totaling $7,514.65, which is the straight time and overtime premium wages that Hamid was not paid for,” as well as a “second payment equal to the amount of straight time and overtime premium wages that Hamid was not paid for...” Id.

29. In sum, in highly suspicious fashion, Plaintiff was suddenly terminated shortly following her engagement in several protected activities, after experiencing significant hostility and animosity, in conjunction with Defendants’ decision to admit liability as to some of Plaintiff’s asserted claims and to remit payment for back wages and liquidated damages claimed by Plaintiff.

30. Therefore, Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that she was subject to disciplinary action, suspended, and ultimately terminated from her employment because of her complaints of wages violations/retaliation and her filing and pursuit of legal claims under the FLSA and PMWA pertaining to the same.

First Cause of Action
Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”)
(Retaliation)
Against All Defendants

31. The forgoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as is set forth in full.

32. Plaintiff complained to Defendants’ administration, including management, about wage violations and instances of retaliation in response to her complaints of wage violations.

33. Plaintiff was disciplined, suspended, and ultimately terminated in retaliation for her aforementioned complaints.

34. The FLSA prohibits retaliation against employees who complain about overtime and wage violations in the workplace. See 29 U.S.C. § 215(a)(3).

35. Defendants’ actions as aforesaid constitute violations of the FLSA.

Count II
Violation of the Pennsylvania Minimum Wage Act (“PMWA”)
(Retaliation)

36. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

37. Plaintiff complained to Defendants’ administration, including management, about wage violations and instances of retaliation in response to her complaints of wage violations.

38. Plaintiff was disciplined, suspended, and ultimately terminated in retaliation for her aforementioned complaints.

39. Such actions constitute violations of the PMWA.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an order providing that:

A. Defendants are to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff, and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendants’ illegal actions, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, salary, pay increases, bonuses, medical and other benefits, training, promotions, pension, and seniority. Plaintiff should be accorded those benefits illegally withheld from the date she first suffered discrimination at the hands of Defendants until the date of verdict;

B. Plaintiff is to be awarded liquidated damages and/or punitive damages as permitted by applicable law in an amount believed by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendants for their willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct, and to deter Defendants or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

C. Plaintiff is to be awarded damages for emotional distress and/or pain and suffering and is to be accorded any and all other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper, and appropriate;

D. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable legal fees as provided by applicable federal and state law;

E. Any verdict in favor of Plaintiff is to be molded by the Court to maximize the financial recovery available to Plaintiff in light of the caps on certain damages set forth in applicable federal law;

F. Plaintiff's claims are to receive a trial by jury to the extent allowed by applicable law. Plaintiff has also endorsed this demand on the caption of this Complaint in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 38(b).
